America's Capital Partners Acquires Landmark I.M. Pei Building
*Towers at Wildwood Plaza in Atlanta

CORAL GABLES, FLORIDA (September 2014) – As part of a newly formed fund venture, America's Capital Partners (ACP) has acquired the Towers at Wildwood Plaza in Atlanta, GA. This landmark development, designed by internationally renowned architect I.M. Pei, is comprised of over 700,000 square feet of Class-A office space. The Towers at Wildwood Plaza is widely considered as the top quality suburban office building in the Cumberland-Galleria sub-market and is home to several major Fortune 500 tenants including General Electric, Allstate Insurance, Vonage Communications, Alere, Tenet Healthcare and IBM Credit Union.

“The Towers at Wildwood Plaza is a benchmark property for our growing portfolio,” commented Sergio Socolsky, CEO of ACP. “This “Best in Class” office property aligns very well with several other recently acquired assets in what we feel is a well balanced, geographically diverse portfolio of institutional quality investments”

America's Capital Partners (ACP) is a fully integrated private real estate investment company headquartered in Coral Gables, Florida, with regional offices in Atlanta, Charlotte and Tampa. Over the past fifteen years ACP has acquired, managed and leased over 18 million square feet of office space in major markets along the east coast of the United States with an aggregate asset value of over four billion dollars.
