America's Capital Partners Launches Rebranding Campaign and announces additions to Executive Leadership Team

CORAL GABLES, FLORIDA (May 2015) – America's Capital Partners (ACP) is unveiling a new logo as part of the firm's rebranding efforts – timed with additions to the company's executive leadership team. The new logo places emphasis on the acronym for which the company has become known and was designed to better represent their core values of innovation, passion and integrity.

"This past year has been one of changes for ACP; we looked internally and recognized the need to create a new brand identity to realign with our corporate vision," explained ACP CEO Sergio Socolsky. "We will continue to invest in best of class commercial assets but will also implement new strategies that include a focus on international funds."

ACP has also added new leadership to the company's executive team. Judi A. Sponsel now serves as Vice President of America's Capital Partners overseeing Property Management and Operations. Ms. Sponsel has more than 32 years of Commercial Real Estate operation experience in multiple markets as well as pre-construction consultation and operating strategy development. She is an active member of (Building Owners and Management Association (BOMA) Georgia and is currently serving as the inaugural Chairperson of the Board of Trustees of the newly formed BOMA Georgia Foundation. Forrest A. Jones has been named Vice President of Development focusing on the firm's future growth in the Southeast region of the United States. Jones brings with him three decades of experience in commercial real estate with a concentration on product development and acquisitions. Raimundo Echeverría has joined ACP as Portfolio Manager responsible for the management and execution of private investments for international funds. Prior to ACP, Echeverría worked for Capital Advisors Equity Investments, one of the largest Private Equity firms in Chile.

ACP is a fully integrated private real estate investment company headquartered in Coral Gables, Florida, with regional offices in Atlanta, Charlotte and Tampa. Over the past fifteen years ACP has acquired, managed and leased over 18 million square feet of office space in major markets along the east coast of the United States with an aggregate asset value of over four billion dollars.
